

PLEASE do not relax the current rules and policies on ownership!
It's bad enough that Clearchannel already practically owns the music business...please let's not let it get any worse. I would much rather see the rules tightened up than see them be relaxed any more than they already are.